

May Family Program

Watercolor Workshop inspired by Alice Ravenel Huger Smith

Children 6 & up are invited to join Sarah Samuel Holley from ARTScool Charleston for a watercolor workshop inspired by artist Alice Ravenel Huger Smith.

Alice Ravenel Huger Smith was famous for her watercolors of Lowcountry scenes. She was mostly self-taught and illustrated several books, including her father's.

Date: Saturday, May 18, 2019

Time: 10:30 AM to 12:00 PM

Location: The South Carolina Historical Society Museum
100 Meeting Street
Charleston SC 29401

This event is FREE to the public and includes admission to the museum. We ask that you register by emailing bailey.knight@schsonline.org or visiting schseducation.org.

